Sullivan covered his 500 miles at 11:45. At 12 o'clock Hazael was resting, Fitzgerald was running, Hart was walking and Hughes limping. Hazael came on the track at 12:15, after an hour's rest, but retired after making a lap; he returned at 12:30 and took position at Fitzgerald's heels. Fitzgerald and Hart appeared to be the fresheat men on the track. Rowell in the afternoon again visited the track with a trainer and spoke to the pedes-trians as they passed. People crowd-ing around him, he disappeared to avoid their questions.

At 1:30 Hazael with 581 miles and 2 laps, was running fast and well. It was understood at that time Fitzgerald had taken a bet to make 600 hundred miles and that as a result Ha-zael meant to make 615. When Fitzgerald left the track at time the band had arrived. Hart displayed some fine walking and was and that Governor Terrizas has been cheered. Sullivan went bravely to attacked. Mexican troops stationed work and Hughes followed his example, Noremac, the little Scotchman, doing some wonderful running. Fitzgerald made his appearance at a quarter to 3 and running. He was presented with a boquet with red, white and blue ribbons attached, and won applause. Hazael then came from his tent and completed his 585th mile at 10 minutes past 3 p. m., his next home in Corry, this county, and a day was accomplished six minutes later.

Sullivan endeavored to keep up with near the city limits and had evidently Hazael, who was going at a terrible been murdered.
